

Year 2 Unit Medium Term – Computing – E-Safety

N.C POS

- Use technology safely, respectfully and responsibly; recognise acceptable/unacceptable behavior; identify a range of ways to report concerns about content and contact

Concept: change, information, communication, technology

Strand/s of Computing in this Unit: Digital Literacy

Key Vocabulary: website, digital footprint, personal information, safety, rules, cyberbullying, suitable

Prior Learning: online and offline, SMART rules, what a web browser is, email is a good form of communication, how to use a search engine to find a picture, personal information should be kept private from strangers online

Core Knowledge- non-negotiable- specific knowledge must be identified here

- Give examples of how technology is used to communicate beyond school (i.e. email, Skype or FaceTime).
- Know the rules of using technology at home or in school.
- Understand that once something is posted, control of it is lost.
- Understand that everyone leaves a digital footprint.
- Understand that some things may upset them online.
- Understand that not everyone online can be trusted (not everyone is who they say they are).
- Use online services to communicate safely (relationships online).
- Understand what to do to get help online if needed.
- Give examples of online bullying behaviour.
- Understand the impact online bullying may have and know where to go for support.
- Explain what personal information is and understand the need for passwords to protect it.
- Understand that content online is owned by the person who created it.
- Use a search engine and be aware that not everything you read online is true.

Wider Influences:

- Rules
- Cyberbullying
- Safer Internet Day

Enduring Understanding:

- To understand that what they do online leaves a trail called a digital footprint.
- Understand how to improve the efficiency of their online searches
- Be introduced to the term 'cyberbullying' and look at how to communicate online safely and respectfully.
- Understand what personal information is and how it can be protected online.