Year   6 Unit Medium Term – Computing - Presentation skills - Version 2

N.C POS
- Select, use and combine a variety of software (including internet services) on a range of digital devices to design and create a range of programs, systems and content that accomplish given goals, including collecting, analysing, evaluating and presenting data and information
- Use technology safely, respectfully and responsibly; recognise acceptable/unacceptable behavior; identify a range of ways to report concerns about content and contact
- Understand computer networks including the internet; how they can provide multiple services, such as the World Wide Web; and the opportunities they offer for communication and collaboration

Strand/s of computing in this unit: Information Technology

Concept: cause and effect, change, information, communication, technology, organisation

Key Vocabulary: multimedia, layout, design, structure, select, import, graphics, peer/self-assessment

Prior Learning: ability to plan the structure and layout of presentation, create hyperlinks to produce a non-linear presentation, use a multimedia program to organise, refine and present information.

Core Knowledge- non-negotiable- specific knowledge must be identified here

- Create documents and presentations for a variety of audiences using a consistent design appropriate to purpose.
- Demonstrate familiarity and confidence when using common office apps/programs.
- Create, edit, save and publish written work independently.
- Troubleshoot basic errors and use keyboard shortcuts.

Wider Influences

Enduring Understanding

- Be able to effectively evaluate own and others' work.
- Be able to discuss the purpose and audience of a presentation/piece of work.
- Create a document/presentation based on a particular purpose and audience.